

If your complaint is suitable for consumer assistance, a consumer specialist will contact both you and then the business with which you are having a dispute and attempt to resolve your problem.

The Consumer Protection Unit is also available to speak to your group about consumer rights. We can present consumer information to assist consumers in resolving their own consumer-business problem.

Consumer Protection Unit

The Northwestern District Attorney's Office has been home to a local consumer protection program since 1973. The Consumer Protection Unit's Director, Janice Garrett, and Case Coordinator, Anita Wilson, are trained specialists who work to resolve consumer complaints through an informal process and also provide resources and referrals to the public. They deliver education and outreach programs throughout both counties, giving consumers the information they need to make informed decisions and protect themselves against scams and fraud.

The Consumer Protection Unit (CPU) works in cooperation with the MA Attorney General's Office (AGO). We are one of 20 programs throughout the state which receives a grant from the AGO to provide a local consumer program.

Consumer Protection staff will assist consumers in the following areas:

- New and Used Automobiles Purchases
- Home Improvement
- Shopping Rights
- Credit and Debt Issues
- Landlord/Tenant Rights
- Identity Theft
- Auto Repair
- Internet Sales
